GoStrategic: Founded in 1979 by Dennis Peacocke who serves as President, GoStrategic is a prophetic ministry committed to training and equipping leaders of every cultural sphere in discipling nations and transforming the world. GoStrategic operates internationally, educating Christians through our School of Business Leadership and School of Strategic Living correspondence schools, events, educational products, networking, and consulting services. Our ministry headquarters are based in Santa Rosa, California, with affiliates and schools in Mexico, Central and South America, Europe, Asia, and New Zealand.

GoStrategic equips believers to be leaders in the communities where they live, work, and serve. We specialize in bridging the gap between spiritual truth and the practical implementation of those truths in confronting real-world problems. With over three decades of experience educating, modeling, and connecting like-minded individuals, we have seen first-hand the fruit of Christians applying Biblical principles to the most complex challenges. It is our sincere hope that the services we provide result in thousands of communities transformed as believers step in to rebuild, repair, and restore our world. To learn more, please visit our website: www.gostrategic.org

The School of Business Leadership began in 1996 with the mission of training businesspersons how to build businesses God's way. The school is a two-year correspondence course based on biblical principles of economics and business practice, and the inherent concept that deeper learning follows effective service to others. GoBusiness provides a sharply-defined perspective for how biblical truth impacts marketplace thinking and practice, and produces transformation in participants' lives and businesses. GoBusiness is currently operating in the US, Mexico, Canada, Europe, New Zealand, Asia, and Central America. To learn more, please visit our website: www.businessleadershipschool.org

The School of Strategic Living began in the home of Dennis Peacocke in the 1980's with a vision to equip his children with tools that would help prepare them to be leaders in their generation. In 1991, this family exercise became what is now—called School of Strategic Living—and has developed into a course that has touched lives in the United States, Canada, New Zealand, Australia, and all over Europe, and serves to develop emerging leaders of all ages.

The school is a two-year correspondence program designed to set a course for leaders, both current and emerging, by equipping them to think biblically, challenging them to live strategically, and providing insights for leading effectively. School of Strategic Living has proven itself an invaluable tool for those who believe God has called them for a purpose and want to identify and be trained to fulfill it. If you would like more information on how you can participate in this vision, please visit the GoLife website: www.strategiclifetraining.com

The Statesmen Project is an international movement of concerned citizens responding to the growing economic and social crises with practical Biblical principles and models that solve specific community and national problems. We are a group of people seeking to transcend self-interest and politics-as-usual to help our communities and nations thrive out of these crises. Freedom, sustainable prosperity, and justice are the legitimate goals of all nations and people groups. Elusive as these goals may be, the only pathway to them is clear, long-term strategic thinking undergirded by a genuine ethic of "loving our neighbors as we love ourselves." We are committed to finding those who believe these simple truths and seek to address and redress their absence in a modern world. For info or to listen to Statesmen podcasts, please visit: www.thestatesmenproject.org

Spiritual Energy: The Violent Take the Kingdom of God by Force

BY DENNIS PEACOCKE

And from the days of John the Baptist until now, the Kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force. —Matthew 11:12

I. What is the Greek word the translators used to either capture the word Jesus would have used in Aramaic or use the Greek itself (Matthew) as an eye-witness?

A. The Greek word used is biazō, related to biaios.

1. Its root meaning in Strong's Concordance is "violent," "forceful," and "to crowd oneself into."

2. It can easily be translated accordingly to the intention of the ones being violent with "unified," "passion," "intense," "vigorously," with "might," or "focused."

3. Spiritually speaking: As one captured by a cause, a person, or a driving ambition.

B. This kind of "violence" in the act of apprehension would certainly cause a trajectory of a highly disciplined learner, i.e. a "disciple."

1. Does Acts 17:6-7 fit this reality? —————→

2. Would it be fair to say only disciples, not believers, characterized those who changed the world? (2 Corinthians 11:22-28; Philippians 3:5-14)

When they did not find them, they began dragging Jason and some brethren before the city authorities, shouting, "These men who have upset the world have come here also; and Jason has welcomed them, and they all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus." —Acts 17:6-7

II. What spiritual energy do we need in our day to withstand those who oppose our King's spiritual agenda as He advances His Kingdom?

A. Our energy comes from our heart.

3.

B. Our training routine must match the attacks of our adversaries.

1.

3.

C. In order to LAUNCH a new training routine, what must we do?

1.

3.

III. Let's pray together.

THURSDAY, 8:30 PM | GoBUSINESS WORKSHOP

Discipleship in the Workplace

BY KEN NEGVESKY

Introduction: The Kingdom perspective on being and making disciples in every jurisdiction in Father's world. (Matthew 28:18-20; Colossians 1:28-29)

I. Why discipleship in the marketplace? Why not? (Colossians 3:17, 23-24)

- A. Reductionism in viewing discipleship as a church-related process for building people spiritually rather than God's universal method for producing deep followers of Jesus Christ.
- B. Definition of discipleship in biblical context. (John 1:43-51)
- C. Definitive difference between mentoring and discipleship.
- D. The essential need for deep, transformed, trained leaders in every generation. (Matthew 13:36-43)

II. The call for being disciples first and foremost as business people. (7 Mountains)

- A. In order to make disciples, you must be in the process of being one yourself. ("Everything I have taught you...")
- B. Awakening to the revelation of discipleship as God's primary method for raising up His sons and daughters to the level of character, building, and warfare worthy of the King and His Kingdom business.
- C. Committing to the pathway of discipleship for yourself and for those God will call you to bring with you into a Kingdom lifestyle. (Luke 14:25-33)
- D. Discipleship as a lifestyle rather than a program or popular church tool.
- E. Pioneering a life-transformation alternative to quick fixes or shallow changes.
- F. Paying the personal costs for true transformation and reformation of personal lives and culture.

III. The absolute necessity of discipleship for reformation of the business sphere. (Matthew 28:18-20)

- A. Jesus' method of come and see my way and life. (John 1:46)
- B. Effective discipleship is not telling someone how to live; it's showing them how to live.
- C. Teachable moments are caught, not taught.
- D. Vulnerability and openness in sharing successes and failures of life.
- E. Follow me as I follow Christ—not perfection but reality and real change. (Paul's approach)
- F. Dealing with hardship/difficulties in the learner context. Watching your reactions, responses, struggles, and even learning together.
- G. Learning to deal with the messes of life designed to grow us up and become problem solvers. (Not snowflakes, but apprentices of becoming overcomers and winners by God's definitions!)

IV. Seeking those you are called to/assigned to disciple.

- A. Recognizing who God is working on and who He has given you to work with in Him. (John 5:19)
- B. Marking the truly hungry and thirsty ones ready for discipleship.
- C. Proving their dedication to the process; starters and finishers.
- D. Mutual respect and honoring essential to the relationship.
- E. Making disciples of Jesus, not you, as the endgame.
- F. Setting the trajectory of your life and others; God's destiny for them in the Son of God.
- G. Leaving a legacy others can follow so that the discipleship pathway is repeated generation to generation with the end result of Jesus Christ being all in all and filling all in all! (Colossians 1:9-17)

THURSDAY, 8:30 PM | GoLIFE WORKSHOP

Fueling the Prophetic Life

BY DR. PATTI AMSDEN

I. Our Father's intention is that we would have a vibrant life that is a result of God speaking to us, us speaking to Him, and us speaking for Him and representing Him.

- A. In the beginning, Adam fellowshiped and communicated with God.
- B. Adam sinned and was cast out of God's presence and away from God's council.
- C. Throughout the Old Covenant, God granted access to His presence and to His council to men called prophets.
 - 1. Micaiah - I Kings 22:13-18: "Hear thou therefore the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord sitting on his throne and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left. And the Lord said . . ." (vs. 19, 20a)
 - 2. Elijah - I Kings 17:1: "... As the Lord God of Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word."
 - 3. Jeremiah 23:21-22: "I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. Yet if they would have stood in my counsel and caused my people to hear my words, then they would have turned them from their evil way and their evil doings"

II. God's will is to have more than just a few who can sit with God, hear from God, and speak for God; rather God's will is to restore to all the relationship, the intimacy, and the dominion assignment that Adam forfeited.

- A. Numbers 11:16-30 tells the story of Moses who functioned in a prophetic life, becoming overburdened in his care for the nation of Israel.
 - 1. God directed Moses to gather 70 leaders and God would "take the spirit which is upon you and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, and that you bear it not alone." (vs 17)
 - 2. Two men did not gather with the others and yet received the ability to prophesy. Joshua told Moses to forbid them but Moses replied, "Would God that all the Lord's people were prophets and that the Lord would put his spirit upon them." (vs.29)
- B. The Prophet Joel in Joel 2:28-29 expressed the same sentiment and promised a day when all would be allowed access to a prophetic life: "And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.”

C. Joel’s word was fulfilled at Pentecost as recorded in Acts 2:16-18: “But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams: And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy.”

D. Jesus death paid the penalty for Adam’s transgression, not only removing the death penalty that was on mankind but also readmitting mankind back into God’s presence, His throne room, and His council room.

1. Matthew 27:50-51: “Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost and behold the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent.”

2. Mark 16:19: “So then after the Lord had spoken unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.”

3. Ephesians 2:5-6: “Even when we were dead in sins, (God) hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:”

4. The whole body of God’s elect has been readmitted and may have a vibrant life of God speaking to us, us speaking to Him, and us speaking for and representing the Lord.

III. Practicing the presence of God matures us through aligning our hearts with the heart of God and opening our minds to His purposes, thus enabling us to accomplish His will in the earth.

A. A devotional life is not ritualistic practices but rather presenting ourselves before the Lord until we receive from Him that which we need to represent Him.

B. Isaiah 40:31: “But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.” (Wait = to bind together by twisting)

C. The prophetic life is a life of representation and a life where the word and the will of God become incarnate in our flesh.

D. The prophetic life is a life where what is seen and heard in God’s presence is by faith acted upon in the earth.

E. The prophetic life is a life that carries the power, presence, and atmosphere of heaven into the arena of human activity.

Tending Your Garden

BY KATHERINE GALLAGHER

God's Method to Change the World: Start in Your Own Garden

I. How do you change the world? (2 Corinthians 10:13)

- A. God clearly showed us how to change the world in the beginning. (Genesis 2:15)
 - 1. Change begins from the inside-out and the bottom-up.
 - 2. One person, sphere of influence, or "garden" at a time.
- B. Who is in your garden?
 - 1. Yourself
 - 2. Your family
 - 3. Your spiritual relationships
 - 4. Your community and the people you regularly interface with (work, neighbors, etc.)
 - 5. Those you see God working with. (John 4:4-42; 5:19)

C. What does God ask us to do with it?

1. See it (look hard and think about it!).
2. Pray for it—the borders of your ministry are the borders of your prayer life.
3. Cultivate it with word and deed.
4. Use your gifts and tools (what God has given you?).
5. Harvest it and look for added size as you do. (Luke 16:10-12)
6. Teach other believers to work their gardens.

II. Barriers to caring for our gardens:

A. In a fallen world, the natural condition of the garden is weeds.

- a. Our fallen self and its perception.
 - b. In regard to tending ourselves: Excuses, fears, and sin.
 - c. In regard to tending others: How do we perceive/relate to those around us?
 - d. Offense with God or with others. (Proverbs 14:9)
 - e. Familiarity: Sometimes we give our worst to those we should be giving our best.
1. Satan and spiritual warfare
 2. Condition of the soil and sowing good seed—often its about the condition of the soil not the quality of the seed.

B. Objections to change (in ourselves & others):

1. “I don’t believe I can change” (past failures; goals set and missed).
2. “I don’t want to change” (dealing with “friendly sins” or deception).

3. “I am angry at God or someone and rebel against change.”

4. “I don’t know how to change” (feeling trapped).

C. Four major principles that lead to change:

1. Change begins with a genuine hunger for truth and reality.

2. Change is usually precipitated by a crisis we successfully work through.

3. Lasting change requires coaches and pastors to help train us into how to hold the change by correct practice and knowing what to reject.

4. Real change must be practiced until becomes a reflex. (Deuteronomy 6:4-9; Proverbs 6:20-23)

D. How to cultivate and represent change:

1. Attitude: Get in the big picture and stay in it.

2. Action: Take ownership of God’s spiritual principles and practice them daily.

3. Experience: Know what you know and build your testimony.

4. Opportunity: Seize daily opportunities to bring transformation into your sphere of influence.

5. Worship: Enjoy God working in you and with you.

III. In Summary:

A. Find your garden and care for it.

B. Deal with your objections/barriers to God using you.

C. Work on understanding the dynamics of the transformation process.

D. Recruit others to do all of the above.

Building for Success

BY DENNIS PEACOCKE

I. Our first task is to attempt to define “success” from an eternal rather than temporal point of view.

A. Success is fulfilling God’s plans for us on earth: Obedience

1. Stewarding our gifts with increase (stewardship).
2. Fulfilling our representation of Christ to the people and tasks He has called us to (destiny).
3. Developing the character and skill sets God has called us to begin to master for our eternal calling of leadership (eternal growth). 1 Cor.3:9-15; John 5:17.

B. This “success” must be achieved by:

1. Working in faith at whatever we are called to do rather than for the simple reasons of money, power, peer pressure or college degrees (Heb. 11:6).
2. The money and resources we gather should be “satisfaction resources” not “anxiety-driven” money.
3. To do these things, we must answer two all-important questions: “What must I do before I die;” and “How do I give myself to eternal skill sets and working with the Holy Spirit moment by moment?”

C. Remember, God plays everyone who is in shape. “Success” is in living in the training to succeed.

1. He isn’t looking for “perfect people”, He is looking for people who are in training (being disciplined) with the Holy Spirit.
2. He plays us according to our level of preparation. (competency, the opposition, God as the “fight manager”)

3. Offense, not just defense. Here are the questions again:

- a. What level do you want to play?
- b. What does it take to play at that level?
- c. What will it cost for you to get there?

D. God uses us to bring transformation to people and situations based on certain spiritual laws He has established.

1. We can only bring true and lasting transformation to people if we ourselves are in the transformation we are advocating (the law of measles and mumps).
2. In a fallen world, the only ultimate question is, “how do we experience lasting transformation that grows and is transferable to others?”
3. All players look for competent coaches, and aspire to become a competent coach themselves.

II. We must learn to build God’s way:

A. The “Big Three:”

1. How God builds strategically (how to live, think, lead, and build strategically)
2. How God builds relationally (how to build relationally, according to Christ’s patterns)
3. How God builds learning organizations (how to create a learning-response team of people)

B. The BLS curriculum deals with all three of these issues.

1. Firstly, as we develop a Christian worldview in general and in these areas relating to business economics.
2. Secondly, as we develop applicational skills.

Biblical Worldview of Investing

BY DR. GERALD CHESTER

I. What are investments? Definitions:

II. Who am I to invest? The question of identity:

III. Whom to invest in? The question of called relationships:

IV. What to invest in? The question of what will God bless:

V. How to invest? The question of means and methods:

VI. Where to invest? The question of location:

VII. When to invest? The question of timing:

VIII. Why to invest? The question of motive:

IX. Take Away:

SATURDAY, 11:20 AM | GoLIFE WORKSHOP

For Such a Time As This

BY ADAM PEACOCKE

“For if you remain silent at this time, relief and deliverance will arise for the Jews from another place and you and your father’s house will perish. And who knows whether you have not attained royalty for such a time as this. —Esther 4:14

I. Esther’s story is a picture of the individual’s responsibility to the community.

A. Extraordinary as Esther’s circumstances were, she lived a normal Christian life.

B. Extraordinary as the circumstances of Esther’s dilemma were, at its root, it is no different than ours.

1. What is the nature of our choice?

2. What is at risk?

II. The purpose of community is to display the glory of God (Numbers 14:21).

...but indeed, as I live, all the earth will be filled with the glory of the Lord.

—Numbers 14:21

A. We (the people of God) demonstrate the nature of God through our relationships and through our roles.

B. We demonstrate the character of God through the outworking of our gifts, talents, and motivations.

C. We demonstrate the heart of God through being an active dwelling place for His Spirit.

III. Ways we “remain silent”:

- A. By living selfishly and not seeing a purpose greater than our own happiness.
- B. By living isolated and not having relationships capable of drawing to expression what God has placed in you or being available to draw the same out of others.
- C. By living lazily and not developing the gifts, talents, and motivations God has given to you.
- D. By living carnally and not presenting yourself as available to the Spirit of God for expressing His purposes and His heart in His way.

IV. Will you become an Esther or a Moses in your community?

- A. Will you lead a disciplined life?
- B. Will you become relationally connected to the community?
- C. Will you develop to a point of excellence the gifts and talents that God has given you?
- D. Will you learn how to walk in the gifts and fruit of the Spirit?

School of Business Leadership

Founded by Dennis Peacocke and refined by a team of marketplace experts, the materials taught in GoStrategic's School of Business Leadership have been cultivated from the wisdom of Scripture and perfected through years of practice and execution. It is about leading people and building organizations God's way in every sphere of our lives, and in the marketplace in particular. The biblical foundations undergirding the material are radically and systematically different than the thinking behind the world-system's view of business and economics. The GoBusiness100 course is designed to maximize the possibility of making the required paradigm shifts into a truly biblical, Kingdom-oriented marketplace worldview.

The GoBusiness 100 course is a year long journey that prepares you to enter the GoBusiness200 course the following year. Regardless of whether the student chooses to go on to GoBusiness200, they will gain invaluable insight into Kingdom economics and business practice. Each student will be networked with a trained course Facilitator and connected to a larger body of students for regular communication and coaching.

Enrollment Details:

- o GoBusiness is a correspondence program divided into two, one-year courses
- o Enrollment is open year round with new groups forming quarterly
- o An Introductory Module is available to try out the course before committing to full enrollment
- o There are no pre-requisites for the first year course
- o Tuition may be made in monthly installments

School of Strategic Living

The School of Strategic Living began in 1991, birthed out of the vision of Dennis Peacocke to see generational transfer practically applied in the areas of leadership and worldview. It is a two-year correspondence course that provides systematic training in Christian worldview and biblical discipleship. Students are guided through the course under the direction of trained facilitators, and graduates have a clear testimony to their transformation through the course. We currently have schools in the US, Australasia, and Europe, with plans for expansion into Latin America.

Enrollment details:

GOSTRATEGIC REBUILDERS NETWORK

AN INVITATION TO HELP CHANGE OUR NATION

The REBUILDERS NETWORK is a reciprocal support system designed to sow vision, build relationship, and provide practical equipping tools. Just as REBUILDER PARTNERS are faithful to sow into GoStrategic, we want to faithfully sow back into them through products, services, and resources. We use the term “network” to emphasize that this is a relational group, designed to not only connect people with GoStrategic, but also connect our partners with each other.

In every generation, God raises up men and women whose lives are strategically spent making a difference for the Lord, their nation, and future generations. These servants embody the prophetic work of REBUILDING as described thousands of years ago by the prophet Isaiah:

*And those from among you will rebuild the ancient ruins,
You will raise up the foundations of many generations;
And you will be called the repairer of the breach,
The restorer of streets in which to dwell. —Isaiah 58:12*

Working with GoStrategic, REBUILDER PARTNERS are actively committed to supporting both their local church and God’s prophetic work of challenging and changing the fallen culture of their nation. They are those who seek to extend the Kingdom of God into every area of their life. In short, we must know the message, share the message, and support the message. Here is how you as a REBUILDER PARTNER will do this:

1. Invest a monthly tax-free donation of at least $20 per month which helps support our training and mobilization efforts around the world.
2. Pass on what you’re learning to others as the Holy Spirit opens opportunities in your “garden” of relationships which God has given you to tend and influence for His Kingdom.
3. Receive exclusive ministry updates quarterly.

Nations are changed one life at a time. As the GoStrategic REBUILDERS NETWORK grows, God’s Kingdom grows on a grass-roots level, and spiritual and cultural change is one step closer. We personally invite you to join us in helping ignite personal and social transformation. May future generations know, if the Lord tarries, that a group of men and women served faithfully in their day.
