Building Blocks for Healthy Nations

PROFESSOR VINCENT C. ANIGBOGU

FOUNDER, INSTITUTE FOR NAT'L TRANSFORMATION

Professor Vincent Chinedum Anigbogu is Founder and Director General of the Institute for National Transformation, serving over 5000 leaders at their training centers across Africa and beyond. Based on his passionate belief that sound, value-based education is central to reconstructing the mindset of Africans, the institute develops leadership of integrity with a mission to transform communities and nations. Professor Anigbogu holds a Ph.D. in Analytical Chemistry and taught on the subject for over twenty years at universities in the USA. In 2021, he became a Distinguished Professor and the pioneer Executive Director of the Centre for Ethical and Moral Leadership (CEMoL) at Akwa Ibom State University. Married for thirty years, he and his wife, Peggy, work and travel internationally as consultants to business establishments, state and national governments, universities, and faith-based organizations. www.intinternational.org

DR. MARC A. BELILES

FOUNDER, GLOBAL TRANSFORMATION NETWORK

Dr. Marc A. Beliles is President of Global Transformation Network, a collaborative global community committed to the discipling of nations. He is the co-founder of Providence Foundation and its Biblical Worldview University. He has traveled to over seventy countries and addressed parliaments and high-ranking officials of nations on the topics of faith and freedom. Dr. Beliles brings over four decades of experience as an ordained minister, former pastor and bishop, and now a sought-after international speaker and cultural leadership coach for professionals in all spheres of influence. He earned his Ph.D. from Whitefield Theological Seminary and is the author of many books, including National Transformation and a five-book series on Christ's Strategy to Disciple Nations. He and his wife, Nancy, reside in Virginia and are blessed with three children and nine grandchildren. www.globaltransformation-network.com

DENNIS PEACOCKE

FOUNDER, GOSTRATEGIC

Dennis Peacocke has carried a concern for social justice for over 35 years. In his college days, this was expressed through his involvement in the civil rights and free speech movements. He graduated from UC Berkeley with a major in Political Science at the height of the turbulent 60s. Since his conversion in 1968, Dennis has gained international respect as a strategist due to his unique way of applying biblical solutions to the issues challenging families, churches, businesses, and government. A former business owner, Dennis is the founder of GoStrategic, a leadership organization dedicated to demonstrating the relevance of Christianity to every area of contemporary life. He has authored four books and recorded numerous audio/video presentations. Dennis and his wife, Jan, reside in Santa Rosa, California; they have three adult children and twelve grandchildren. www.gostrategic.org

SESSION 1

Personal Calling and Collective Work: Understanding Interconnectivity

BY KATHERINE GALLAGHER

The Kingdom of God encompasses every area of life—from family to business to government to the arts. Just as there is diversity in the nature of our callings, conversely, there is a uniformity of truths and interconnectivity of principles that underly how God builds. As believers, we are called to live in personal communion with God, walking out our personal destiny while abiding in the collective calling and community of the broader body of Christ.

- JURISDICTIONS & INTEGRITY: understanding the various roles of believers and how “who we are” is as important as “what we do”
- AREAS OF SPECIALIZATION & COLLECTIVE CALLING: the both/and of equipoise
- COMMUNITY & COLLABORATION: the essential nature of awareness and perspective

SESSION 2

Christ's National Development Goals: A Deeper Look at the Great Commission

BY DR. MARK BELILES

The global elites today identify national development goals and push their agenda on the nations. Often, these goals sound good, but the details reveal outcomes that would be destructive of religious freedom, the national family, free enterprise, etc. Jesus told us to disciple the nations and added in Mark 16 that we should look for change in five ways: demons, tongues, serpents, poison, and sickness. These seem to suggest five indicators of national transformation: spiritual, intellectual, political, economic and social.

- Understanding biblical terminology for national development
- Making measurable long-term strategic plans for nations
- Connecting and mobilizing seven-sphere teams and strategic resource providers

SESSION 3

Master Principles for Building a Healthy Society

BY DENNIS PEACOCKE

We seek to build and live in healthy nations with sustainable structures and outcomes. A sequence of building is required for the effective management and governing of nations. The Bible illuminates both the necessity of specific building principles and the enumerated sequence in which healthy government is solidly built.

- Following God and His Kingdom → The Educational Ekklesia
- Tending Our Gardens → Individual Responsibility
- Healthy Families → The Key Social Component
- Active Citizens → Dual Citizenship
- Engaged Communities → Elders in the Gates
- Scriptural Constitutions → Worldview
- Wise Civic Leaders → Civically Gifted Statesmen
- Godly Public Policy → Jurisdictional Experts

SESSION 4

Transformation and Culture

BY AFRIKA MHLOPHE

Culture is like gravity—we are not always aware of its existence, and yet, it is at the centre of almost everything we do. Consequently, unless we are equipped to deal with culture's influence and are able to use it to our advantage, we are likely to be swayed away from God's mission for our lives. Bear in mind that culture is a social construct and, therefore, affected by sin—as is everything on earth.

- CULTURE AND WORLDVIEW: understanding culture's subtle influence on one's view of the world
- CULTURAL ICEBERG: dealing with the presuppositions, beliefs, and assumptions that undergird culture
- THE IMPACT ON CHRISTIAN LEADERSHIP: culture's affect on how Christians lead

SESSION 5

Seismic Shifts and Our Responsibility BY LANDA COPE

Approximately every 500 years since Jesus came to the earth, dramatic shifts have taken place in the global order, affecting change across numerous arenas. At every point, God has been actively working to re-order the world. Conversely, the enemy has also been active in his desire to re-order the world. There are more Christians alive today than the sum total of those before us that have passed on to heaven. It is crucial for the Church and God's people to recognize their responsibility in shaping the course of this era.

- What foundational aspects of our faith must we establish across all facets of society to ensure effectiveness during this pivotal moment in history?
- Understanding the current seismic shifts
- Embracing our responsibility and fostering hope

SESSION 6

Transformation and Empowerment for Global Impact

BY PROFESSOR VINCENT CHINEDUM ANIGBOGU

It is the Lord's desire that His will be done on earth as it is in heaven (Matthew 6:10) and that the earth be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as water covers the sea (Habakkuk 2:14). Such manifestation of the glory of the Lord is not possible without deliberately raising leaders and dispersing them in the different spheres of society. Isaiah 61:3b says: "People will call them magnificent, like great towering trees standing for what is right. They stand to the glory of the Eternal who planted them. To succeed in our mission, we must raise such radical leaders."

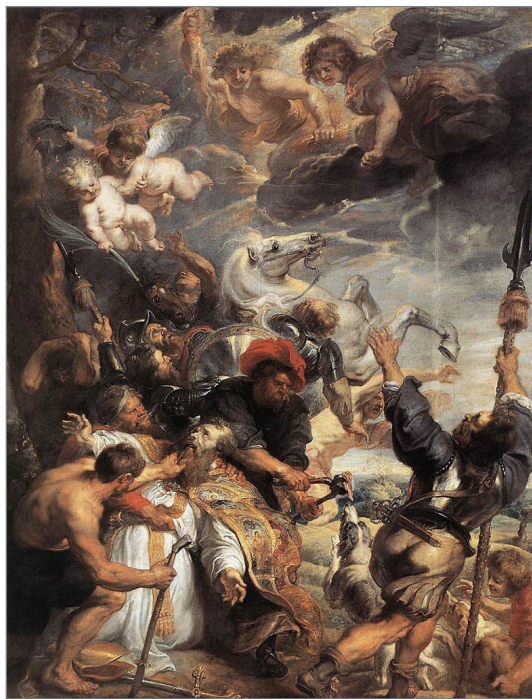

- "The Four Ds" of transformational leadership development: DELIVERANCE | DISCIPLESHIP | DEPLOYMENT | DOMINION (Genesis 1:26)
- Five critical capacities that transformational leaders must possess (Luke 10:27)
- Activities that transformational leaders must understand and permeate (Revelation 5:6, 12)
- Areas of priority and focus in our transformational work in this season
